The Grand Jury charges:

FIRST COUNT:

Conspiracy

On or about September 25, 2010, within the District of Columbia, Chamontae A. Walker, also known as "Kojak," "Jack," "Montae," "Tae" and "Chip" (hereinafter "Walker"), Meeko S. Carraway (hereinafter "Carraway"), and Corey D. Yates (hereinafter "Yates") did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, confederate and agree together to commit a murder, in violation of 22 D.C. Code Section 2101.

Objects of the Conspiracy

The principal object of said conspiracy was for the members of the conspiracy, including Walker, Carraway, and Yates, to kill Darrel Hendy (hereinafter "Hendy"). A second object of the conspiracy was for Walker and Yates to assist Carraway in evading arrest for shooting and killing Hendy.

Ways, Manners and Means

Between on or about June 1 and September 25, 2010, Walker told a number of his friends and associates, including but not limited to Carraway and Yates, that Hendy, a former friend, was trying to kill him. As a result, Carraway and Yates agreed to help Walker locate, shoot and murder Hendy. After the murder, Walker and Yates transported Carraway to North Carolina in an effort to avoid Carraway's apprehension by law enforcement.

Overt Acts of the Conspiracy

In furtherance of the conspiracy, and in order to effect the objects thereof, Walker, Carraway, and Yates, alone and in combination, in the District of Columbia, directly and indirectly, committed overt acts including, but not limited to, the following:

1. On or about September 25, 2010, Walker, Carraway and Yates while in the area of a high rise building in the 800 block of Southern Avenue, Southeast, Washington, D.C. (hereinafter "the high rise building") observed a vehicle belonging to Hendy, at which time Yates made a statement that they should "suit up."

2. On or about September 25, 2010, Walker, Carraway and Yates entered an apartment in the high rise building and while inside the apartment Walker gave a nine millimeter pistol and ammunition to Carraway for the purpose of shooting and killing Hendy.

3. On or about September 25, 2010, Walker, Carraway and Yates left the high rise building in an effort to locate and kill Hendy.

4. On or about September 25, 2010, Walker, Carraway and Yates, after observing Hendy in a parking lot across the street on the Maryland side of Southern Avenue, walked into the parking lot where Hendy was located for the purpose of shooting and killing Hendy.

5. On or about September 25, 2010, Carraway made a statement to Walker to the effect that he was going to shoot Hendy in the parking lot in Maryland, but was instructed by Walker not to shoot Hendy at that time because there were cameras in the area.

6. On or about September 25, 2010, Walker and Yates crossed Southern Avenue back to the District of Columbia and waited across the street from the area where Hendy was located.

7. On or about September 25, 2010, Walker and Yates followed Hendy after he crossed Southern Avenue back to the District of Columbia for the purpose of shooting and killing Hendy.

8. On or about September 25, 2010, Walker, in the presence of Yates, directed Carraway to approach Hendy from behind as Hendy walked toward the high rise building.

9. On or about September 25, 2010, in the area of 860 Southern Avenue, Southeast, Washington, D.C., in the presence of Walker and Yates, Carraway approached Hendy from behind and shot Hendy multiple times with a firearm.

10. On or about September 25, 2010, immediately after the shooting, Walker, Carraway and Yates fled to an apartment in the high rise building for the purpose of avoiding their apprehension by law enforcement.

11. On or about September 25, 2010, inside the apartment in the high rise building, Walker, in the presence of Yates, directed Carraway to cut his hair for the purpose of avoiding his apprehension by law enforcement.

12. On or about September 25, 2010, while inside the apartment in the high rise building, Carraway cut his hair.

13. Between on or about September 25 and October 1, 2010, Carraway, Walker and Yates traveled to a residence in North Carolina for the purpose of avoiding Carraway's apprehension by law enforcement.
